MSPRA Committees

Membership on an MSPRA committee provides new opportunities to network with your fellow professionals as well as gain additional knowledge. If you would like to join a committee (optional), please mark your choice(s) below, complete the contact information at the bottom of this page, and include this page with your membership application. Thank you.

- Awards and Recognition - Elevates the practitioner and school public relations by identifying and recognizing professional school communicators and their districts through the MSPRA School Communicator and Superintendent Communicator of the Year Awards, MSPRA Gold Medallion Award for programs and projects, constructive peer-review feedback on communication strategies and activities, APR (Accredited in Public Relations) Certification, and application to the National School Public Relations Association for the Distinguished Chapter Award. The Awards and Recognition Committee chairperson works with volunteers to coordinate committee activities.

- Professional Development – As PR professionals in the world of education, we rarely get a chance to work with other experts in our field. Professional Development is critical for continuous learning, as well as networking with other school PR experts. This committee helps in the planning and implementation of the annual MSPRA conference and drive-in conferences on topics requested or needed by our members. The Professional Development Committee chairperson works with Professional Development Committee volunteers to plan events.

- Membership Services – MSPRA is here to serve the needs of its members. This committee focuses on welcoming and recruiting, the website, social media, outreach by region, and member resources such as peer-to-peer networking. The committee develops and implements ongoing programs to increase membership and retain existing members. The Membership Services Committee chairperson works with volunteers to address member needs.
